Washington Dispatches

The Senate Almost Through Its Session.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE WORK

Over Three Thousand Messages Received and Acted On—But Two Nominations Have Been Rejected This Session. House and Senate Proceedings—Other Events Taking Place at the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The senate has almost cleared up the executive business which has come before it during the present session of congress. It has received during the session 3,472 messages, each message, except those of unimportant naval and army promotions, representing a single nomination. All of these had been acted upon at 5 o'clock yesterday, except thirty-three. Ten of these were received yesterday afternoon from the president.

Only two nominations have been rejected at this session—those of J. E. Evans collector of internal revenue for the Fifth district of North Carolina, and H. H. Schrock, postmaster at Selin's Grove, Pa. Several nominations will doubtless be left hanging at the time the senate adjourns. The president has withdrawn thirty-nine nominations during the session, but the withdrawals were due to clerical errors in the messages or deaths of nominees.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—In the house yesterday Taylor, of Ohio, moved nonconcurrence in senate amendments to the bill to define and regulate the jurisdiction of United States courts. He wished the bill to go to the conference with the expectation that it would go over until the next session.

On motion of Mr. Cutcheon, of Michigan, the conference report on the bill to increase the efficiency of the signal corps of the army, and to transfer the weather service to the agricultural department, was agreed to.

Senate bills were passed authorizing the construction of bridges across the Missouri river in Boone county, Mo., and Quintard, Kan., and across the Osage river at Benton, Mo.

On motion of Mr. Dingley, of Maine, the senate joint resolution was passed requesting the secretaries of state, war, treasury and navy departments to submit to congress propositions for the enactment into law of the recommendations of the international marine conference.

The house then took a recess until 8 o'clock—the evening session to be for the consideration of bills reported by the committee on Indian affairs.

At the evening session of the house, senate bills were passed for the sale of the Klamath River Indian reservation, authorizing the conveyance of certain absentee Shawnee Indian lands in Kansas; granting to the Newport and Kings Valley Railroad company right of way through the Siletz Indian reservation; giving the assent of the United States to certain leases of rights to mine coal in the Choctaw nation, and to provide for railroad crossings in the Indian territory.

The house then adjourned.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The senate passed senate bill giving assent to leases of rights to mine coal in the Choctaw nation.

The conference report on the bill to relieve settlers on northern Pacific indemnity lands was agreed to.

The conference report on the deficiency appropriation bill was presented and explained by Mr. Hale. He said that the senate conferees had yielded the French spoliations amendment because of the persistency of the house, but the subject would be taken up at another session. The report was agreed to.

The conference report on the tariff bill was then presented and read at length.

No vote was taken on the bill. Several Democratic senators showed a disposition to make speeches, and as Senator Carlisle, who is to make the closing speech for the Democratic side was not feeling well, it was agreed that the close of the debate shall come this afternoon. Mr. Aldrich asked Mr. Carlisle to agree to a limit of two hours for each side to-day, the vote on the report to be taken at about 5 o'clock. Mr. Aldrich will make the closing speech of the debate. The members of the finance committee feel assured that there will be few, if any Republican votes against the report. In fact, the only vote which seems at all sure to be cast against it, is that of Mr. Paddock.

Without any further action the senate then adjourned.

Several Important Nominations.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The president yesterday sent to the senate the following nominations:

Smith A. Whitfield, of Ohio, to be first assistant postmaster general.

James Lowrie Bell, of Pennsylvania, to be second assistant postmaster general.

S. H. Boyd, of Missouri, to be minister resident and consul general of the United States to Siam.

Joseph Black, of Ohio, to be United States consul at Buda-Pesth.

Charles H. Shepard, of Massachusetts, to be United States consul at Gothenberg.

It is Now a Law.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The land grant forfeiture bill, which passed both houses of congress but was in conference committee for sometime, reached the Executive Mansion yesterday and was approved by the president.

Two Bills Approved.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The president has approved the act authorizing the Texas-Mexican Electric Light and Power company to erect wires across the Rio Grande river at Eagle Pass, Tex., and a bill granting a pension to the widow of Gen. Crook.

Another Pension Bill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Mr. Ingalls introduced in the senate by request yesterday a bill to provide for payment of arrears of pensions on applications filed since July 1, 1880.

Treasurer Huston on Duty.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—United States Treasurer Huston returned to Washington from a visit to Connorsville, Ind., and resumed his duties at the treasury department.

MINING ENGINEERS.

Convention of the International Iron and Steel Congress.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—One of the most notable gatherings of mining engineers and iron and steel manufacturers that has ever occurred took place yesterday afternoon, when the first of the series of sessions to be held by the international iron and steel congress convened at Chickering hall. Owing to the late arrival of over a hundred delegates, who came on the Servia, the hall was not filled until well along toward 3 o'clock.

Among the early arrivals were Sir William Arral, of Glasgow, Robert Bell and Clifton Hall, of Edinburgh; Herr Hovestadt, of Berlin; D. M. Von Douglass, Bennett H. Brough, of London.

At 2:30 o'clock, President Hewitt called the meeting to order and Chairman James F. Lewis made a short address of welcome, in which he expressed the pleasure felt by the New Yorkers at seeing so many guests present. He read the program laid out for the meetings, excursions and lectures for the week.

President Hewitt took the platform after the reading of the program and reiterated the welcome extended by Mr. Lewis, and said that no matter what branch of the iron or steel industry one might look for it would be found in New York city, and that the people of New York were heart and hand in any movement looking to the advancement of the iron and steel business.

Following this came the election of new members. Then J. C. Bayles, of East Orange, N. J., read a paper on "Explosion From Unknown Causes." He related accounts of several explosions that occurred without apparent cause.

Owing to the non-arrival of apparatus with which to illustrate his remarks, Overlein Smith, of Bridgetown, N. J., did not read his article on "Cast Iron Tools for Cutting Metals." It was postponed to the evening session. Several papers were read by title and distributed to the members.

This meeting promises to be the most valuable of any that has ever been held by this institution.

These first sessions will merge into subsequent meetings of the Iron and Steel Institute of Great Britan and Ireland, and the Verine Deutcher Fisenhuttenleute of the German empire, and will be continued in conjunction with them on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at Chickering hall, and at Pittsburg on Oct. 9 and 10.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN'S HEIRS.

They File a Claim in Court Asking for One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—In the orphans' court yesterday a petition was filed by the heirs of Benjamin Franklin, praying that the sum of $100,000, now held by the board of city trusts and known as the "Franklin fund," be turned over to them, the ground for the claim being that the provisions of Franklin's will are in violation of the law and therefore void.

Under his will, probated in 1790, Benjamin Franklin bequeathed in trust to the cities of Philadelphia and Boston each the sum of £1,000 sterling to be invested in the form of loans at 5 per cent. interest to "married young artificers" not over the age of 25, to assist them in establishing themselves in business. Franklin had in view the accumulation of a large fund for the purposes specified in his will at the expiration of the period of one hundred years, the remainder to be reinvested for another one hundred years, the same provisions applying to Boston and Philadelphia.

The first period of one hundred years having elapsed the city of Boston has swollen the nucleus of the bequest to about $400,000, but the Philadelphia fund has only reached about $100,000. The object of the suit is to compel the distribution of this fund to the heirs of Franklin descended through his only daughter, Sarah Franklin Bache. It is estimated that there are over fifty of these heirs in this city and vicinity.

The contest is based on several grounds, among them what is known as the rule of perpetuities in common law. The law does not provide for the vesting of a legacy beyond the period of twenty-one years after the life time of the legatee, except funds devoted to charity. It is distinctly claimed that Franklin's plan did not contemplate charity, from the fact that interest was charged on the loans. The suit is to be decided in this city before steps are taken to secure the fund held in Boston, but notice has been served upon the trustees of the Boston fund to prevent any disbursement of it pending litigation.

Anniversary Celebration.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 30.—The celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the introduction in this country of cotton spinning by power by Samuel Slater, in the city of Pawtucket, began here yesterday. In commemoration of the fact that Samuel Slater established one of the first, if not the first, Sunday school in America, yesterday was known as Sunday School Day, the morning being devoted to Sunday school exercises.

Slavin and McAuliffe.

They Surrender Themselves in Court.

REMANDED UNTIL FRIDAY.

Each Man to Furnish His Personal Security of One Thousand Pounds—Cause of the Chinese Floods—The King of Holland Seriously Ill—Various Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Yesterday McAuliffe and Slavin surrendered themselves to the police and were arraigned in the Lambeth police court, charged with having committed a breach of the peace. Previous to their surrender the men had learned that the authorities intended to prosecute them for fighting.

An inspector of police testified in court that though the men wore gloves which had the appearance of ordinary boxing-gloves, he had seen the seconds working the padding from the backs down to the points of the fingers while putting them on the men. Gloves thus manipulated were, he said, useless as a protection against the infliction of injury. He described the contest as a fierce and savage fight, not a scientific boxing match.

The prisoners were remanded until Friday. Each man was required to furnish his personal surety in £1,000 and two bondsmen, each of whom must qualify for £2,000.

Almost a Riot.

PARIS, Sept. 30.—In a speech delivered at the opening of a new bridge over the Seine at Conflans by Sainte Honorine, yesterday, M. Guyot, minister of public works, expressed regret that, notwithstanding the recent exposure of Boulangist methods, there were still in France those who were willing to fly a flag other than that of the republic.

The crowd manifesting some disapproval, M. Guyot continued: "Accomplices of the aspirant to the throne of Cesar have no business here. The best course his dupes can take is to allow themselves to be buried in oblivion."

On the completion of the ceremonies, and as M. Guyot was taking his departure, a Boulangist attempted to assault the minister, at the same time using insulting language. The man was at once placed under arrest.

China's War Ships to Cross the Ocean.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that the Chinese propose sending their magnificent fleet, now under command of the Chinese naval officers, on a voyage across the Pacific, to prove to the world China's ability to handle a fleet in the open sea. Heretofore the Chinese war ships have been content to cruise along the coasts and islands, with an occasional venture into the Pacific or the Indian ocean.

Cause of China's Sorrow.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from China says the recent destructive floods form the Yellow river—now more fitly than ever designated "China's sorrow"—were caused by deliberate human agency, the people along the upper portion of the river deliberately cutting the artificial embankments in order to prevent the stream from backing up over their fields.

Opposition to Archbishop Walsh.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—English Conservative journals are very disconsolate over the prospect of Archbishop Walsh's elevation to the cardinalate, and express a hope that the pope will hesitate about taking such a step, in view of the archbishop's course in encouraging the plan of campaign.

Lace Factories Still Closed.

CALAIS, Sept. 30.—Eighty lace factories here have been closed in consequence of the strike. At a meeting of 3,000 lace makers here yesterday it was unanimously resolved to continue the strike until the manufacturers accept the terms of the employes.

Condition of Holland's King.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 30.—The condition of the King of Holland, who on Saturday suffered a relapse, has become of the gravest character. Dr. Rosenstein, the famous medical expert of Leydon, has been summoned from that city to the king's bedside.

Signor Castioni Arrested.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Signor Castioni, who, during the recent revolution in Ticino, murdered Councillor Rossi in the latter's apartments, has been arrested in this city at the request of the Swiss government and will be taken to Berne for trial.

Baron Soden's Mission.

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—It is officially stated that Baron Soden will soon depart for Africa, with instructions to study the best means for the future government of Germany's possessions in that country and to make his report to the present reichstag.

The Czar as Arbitrator.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 30.—The czar has formally consented to act as arbitrator in the matter of the boundary between French Guiana and Dutch Guiana, a question now at issue between the governments of France and Holland.

Cremated in a Hay Stack.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—A poor woman and three children, who had taken refuge at night in a hay stack near Schwartz, Prussia, were cremated by the burning of the stack.

A Count Suicides in Prison.

BERLIN, Sept. 30.—Count Kleist, who recently committed an atrocious assault upon a [illegible], committed suicide in prison yesterday by hanging himself with his suspenders.

Three Hundred and Eighty Killed.

PARIS, Sept. 30. Advices from Senegal state that a native army under Chief Ahmadou besieged Kumakari, but were repulsed and dispersed by the French. Three hundred and eighty natives were killed.

After the Young King's Life.

BELGRADE, Sept. 30.—While the young King of Servia, accompanied by his father, ex King Milan, was returning from a drive yesterday, a cartridge was exploded beneath his carriage. The authorities allege that the explosion was purely accidental. As far as can be learned no one was injured.

PORTER'S ABSENCE.

Secretary Noble Decides Who Will Be at the Head of the Census Bureau.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The departure of Superintendent of Census Porter for Europe Saturday, gave rise to a bothersome question as to who should act as superintendent of the bureau during his absence. There is no assistant superintendent of the census and the eleventh census law made no provision for the superintendent's absence. But Secretary Noble found a statute at large that provided that when the head of a bureau was absent his chief clerk should perform his duties. Under this law which applies to all branches of the government service, Chief Clerk A. F. Childs will act as superintendent of the census office.

"Mr. Porter," Secretary Noble says, "has been doing a prodigious amount of work and has made a most admirable superintendent of the census. But he has worked himself completely out, and his physician says a trip to Europe is absolutely necessary to his recovery, perhaps to the preservation of his life. He will not be absent long, and though I did not wish him to go until I found out the urgent necessity of it, I then advised him to take the trip. There have been some criticisms of the census bureau, but they are entirely unfounded. It is true recounts have been necessary in some places, but this is to be expected in a count of sixty million of people. The criticisms have been made by people who were disgruntled over something, and they should have no weight. The work of the census bureau is admirable."

BIRCHALL FOUND GUILTY.

Sentenced to Be Hanged Friday, the Fourteenth Day of November.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Sept. 30.—After a week's trial the celebrated murder case, in which J. Rex Birchall was being tried for killing Frederick C. Benwell in February last, has ended. The judge's charge to the jury ended at 9:35 last night and the case was then given to the jury. Judge McMahon said quietly that he would come into court at 11:30 to hear the verdict if reached at that time. At 11:30 the judge returned to the court room.

As soon as the judge arrived the jury were asked if they had agreed upon a verdict and replied: "We have."

"What is your verdict?" asked Judge McMahon.

"Guilty," the foreman replied.

When asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, Birchall replied: "Simply I am not guilty of murder."

The judge then said: "I fully concur with the jury," and proceeded to pronounce sentence, which was that Birchall be taken to the jail and between the hours of 8 a. m. and – p. m. on Friday, the 14th day of November, be hanged by the neck until dead."

CANADIAN OFFICER'S MISTAKE

No Cause for Seizing the American Fishing Schooner Davy Crocket.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—An Ottawa special to The Sun says: From what can be gathered in official circles here the captain of the government cruiser Critic has made a serious mistake in seizing the American fishing schooner Davy Crocket, at Souris, Prince Edward Island, on the 25th inst. The commanders of Canadian cruisers were instructed to avoid making seizures unless under exceptional circumstances.

It was the wish of the Dominion government that every cause that might raise a dispute over the Atlantic fisheries should be avoided this year while the Behring sea question was in the balance. The captain of the cruiser has been requested to explain his action at once, and if there is a possible chance of clearing the seized schooner it will be done.

AN OPERATOR'S FAILURE.

It Causes a Passenger Train to Crash Into a Coal Train.

EASTON, Pa., Sept. 30.—The New Jersey Central passenger train due here at 9 10 p. m. ran into a coal train near Lehighton last night. The accident was caused by the neglect of the operator at Lehighton to hold the coal train as ordered. The passengers on the express were shaken up, but not otherwise injured.

The killed are Engineer Bigelow, of the coal train; Fireman Mitchell of the passenger train and Fireman Dunlap of the coal train. The injured are Tavlor Bedford, engineer of the passenger train and two brakemen of the coal train.

Irish National League Disbanded.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—A special to The Tribune from Cleveland says: [illegible] W. Gleason, chief executive of the Ohio branch of the Irish National league, has announced that the league throughout the country has virtually disbanded. The league was once the most powerful organization in the country. All money collected now for the cause of Ireland must be forwarded direct to Harrington and Kenny, members of parliament. Dr. O'Reilly, of Detroit, once treasurer, stepped out of that office when his accounts were satisfactorily examined some months ago.

Buckeye State News.

Items of Interest from Various Places.

IMPORTANT RAILROAD SUIT.

A Receiver Appointed for the Zanesville, Mount Vernon and Marion Railway—Marietta People Rejoicing—Prisoners Escape From the Elyria Jail. Other Ohio News Items.

ZANESVILLE, O., Sept. 30.—Upon the application of Mr. C. W. Kanke, president of the Zanesville, Mount Vernon and Marion Railway company, Judge Phillips has appointed A. A. Speer receiver for the company. The company has issued $25,000 in bonds and expended the money in constructing a belt line around Zanesville for which Chase Andrews and Frank Wedge are the contractors. The suit is entered against Wedge and the court is asked to annul the contract.

This case is of great interest inasmuch as Col. Boone, the projector of the road, who was ousted last week from control would have come into possession of the Company's franchise on Wednesday of the present week, Oct. 1.

New Incorporations.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 30.—Articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state yesterday as follows: The Seneca Mutual Fire association, Tiffin; Lafayette Division No. 70, Uniformed Rank Knights of Pythias, Middletown; Arcade Savings bank, Cleveland, $50,000; Pike Lumber company, Piketon, $10,000; Traders' Refining company, Cleveland, $100,000; Tuscaras Advertising company, Coshocton, increase from $12,000 to $17,000; The John Danner Manufacturing company, Canton, increase from $45,000 to $50,000; Famous Social Club of Cincinnati; N. Thacker company, Dayton, capital stock $100,000.

Gas Famine Averted.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 30.—Judge Lemmon, of the common pleas court, has decided against the city of Toledo in the injunction proceedings to compel the Northwestern Ohio Natural Gas company to furnish gas at ten cents per thousand feet meter measurement. The company asks twelve cents. The injunction is dissolved and a conference between both parties is now suggested. This is a great victory for the gas company, and the threatened gas famine is averted.

Marietta People Rejoicing.

MARIETTA, O., Sept. 30.—The people here are rejoicing over the news from Washington that Representative O'Neill, of Pennsylvania, yesterday reported from the library committee the senate bill appropriating $50,000 for the erection of a memorial structure at Marietta, O., commemorative of the settlement of the northwest territory. The building will also be used for the safe keeping of books, papers and relics of that memorable event.

Theatrical Troupe Stranded.

LIMA, O., Sept. 30.—The Rapid Transit Comedy company is stranded here. The manager, Charles Seymour, and author, H. Wayne Ellis, left the company Thursday at Piqua, claiming they were going to Cincinnati to raise money. The company struggled here, and after Saturday night's performance burst. They left New York ten days ago.

Boy's Body Blown Across the Ohio.

TORONTO, O., Sept. 30.—A terrific explosion of nitro-glycerine occurred yesterday at the Acme Torpedo company's works, on the West Virginia side of the Ohio river. Ralph Schoeff, an employe, who was making glycerine, was instantly killed. Portions of Schoeff's body were blown across the river. The loss was $2,000.

Long Illness Ended in Death.

IRONTON, O., Sept. 30.—Mrs. Bixby, wife of E. Bixby, and a sister of Ed. Wilson, editor of The Ironton Register, and of Col. H. B. Wilson, died Sunday afternoon, aged 54, after a long illness. She was an old citizen of Ironton.

Penalty of Poker.

LIMA, O., Sept. 30. Curt Hurlbut's poker den was raided Saturday night. Yesterday he was sentenced to ten days in jail, fined $50 and gave $500 bond for one year's good behavior.

Death of an Old Editor.

WASHINGTON C. H., Sept. 30. W. H. P. Denny, aged 89, one of the oldest editors of Ohio and a remarkable man, died here Monday.

Reward for Escaped Prisoners.

ELYRIA, O., Sept. 30. Eight prisoners escaped from the county jail, and the sheriff has offered a reward for their capture.

WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS.

Annual Convention of the National Association in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. The annual convention of the National Wholesale Druggists association opened here last night. More than 300 delegates are present. The Proprietary association, a separate organization, many members of which are members of the Druggists' association, are also in session.

The officers of the Druggists' association are as follows: Mr. Van Schaack, of Chicago, president; Daniel Stewart, of Indianapolis, first vice president; H. M. Sturges, of Cleveland, treasurer, and A. B. Merriam, of Minneapolis, secretary.

Only the selection of a preliminary character was transacted last night and the real work of the meeting will begin today. The meeting will probably last until Friday.

AN AGREEMENT REACHED

By the Conferees on the Deficiency Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The conferees on the deficiency appropriation bill came to an agreement Monday morning. The bill as it passed the house appropriated $5,230,538. The senate increased this appropriation by $2,044,956, making the amount carried by the bill as it passed the senate $7,575,494. The conferees reduced this amount $1,209,235, leaving the total as agreed to in conference $6,066,259.

The conferees reinserted the appropriation of $10,000 for completing public building at Winona, Minn., and agreed to the item of $10,000 for completing building at Texarkana. The item for town sites in Oklahoma was increased from $15,000 to $25,000. The senate appropriation of $1,239,000 to pay French spoliation claims and the item of $12,000 for a steam vessel in Puget sound were struck out.

Physicians Puzzled.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—The city hospital physicians report the condition of Fred. Andress slightly better. Mr. Andress' case is considered by many the most remarkable on record. The patient is paralyzed, and of course is unconscious of any pain. When he was taken to the hospital about three weeks ago, his condition was such that it was not thought he would live twenty-four hours, but despite the predictions, he is alive to-day, and may pull through. He is very weak, and takes but little nourishment. This is unfavorable, but the hope of his recovery is based upon his strong constitution.

Mike Kelly's Position Next Year.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 30.—After the Boston Brotherhood club left the city, President Johnson of the Cleveland club said: "You may say authoritatively that I have secured Mike Kelly to manage and captain the Cleveland team of 1891. Mike has his faults, but is a winning player and I want the championship flag to float in Cleveland just once. Tebeau will captain the team when Kelly is off the field."

Smallpox at New York Quarantine.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Italian steamer Stura arrived here this morning from Mediterranean points with 400 immigrants on board. As smallpox had developed among her passengers she was held at quarantine. A child, 3 years old, which arrived with its parents yesterday on the French steamer La Bretagne is at the barge office hospital suffering from smallpox.

Had His Name Changed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—John Jacob Armstrong Astor, 4 years old, son of William Waldorf Astor, had his name changed by an order of Judge Daly, of the court of common pleas, to John Jacob Astor. The change goes into effect Nov. 1. The child's grandfather and great grandfather had the name of John Jacob Astor and this was the principal cause of the change.

Big Consignment of Tobacco.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The steamer Spaardam, of the Netherland's line, arrived here yesterday from Rotterdam. She has among other cargo 6,500 bales of Sumatra tobacco valued at $1,500,000, consigned to Water street firms.

Fight Between Anarchists and Hebrews.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30. A special to The Herald from Baltimore says: There was the biggest kind of a row last night at a joint meeting of the Polish Anarchists and the Orthodox Hebrews of this city. There were fully 2,000 people at the meeting, the orthodox Hebrews being largely in the majority. An immense crowd was also gathered before the hall, attracted by the noise from within. Several Orthodox Hebrews defended their faith, when Michael Cohen, an Anarchist, who had only been in this country four months, denounced religion and the American government in the severest terms. Then ensued a bitter fight, the cries being heard squares away. The police finally raided the hall and made many arrests.

Train Wrecked by a Cow.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 30.—A Des Moines, Iowa, special to The Tribune says: A destructive wreck occurred yesterday near Eldorado Junction. A freight train struck a cow at the approach of a high trestle and nine cars and the engine were plunged into the ravine. The wreck caught fire and everything was burned. The train crew escaped without injury.

Need More Help.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—The furnace workers of Boston and vicinity, who, as an independent union have vainly endeavored to force a nine hours' work day, having become convinced that the aid of the entire trade will be necessary to attain this end, last night voted to affiliate with the Furnace Workers' International union, and will be initiated Wednesday.

Not Long for this World.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Sun Monday said: Dispatches received in this city announces the dangerous illness of Frederick Billings, ex-president of the Northern Pacific railroad at his home in Woodstock, Vt. His death has been only a question of time since last December when he was prostrated by a stroke of paralysis.

A Tobacconist Suicides.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 30.—Lewis M. Griffin, a well known tobacconist of this place, committed suicide this morning by shooting himself with a revolver. He was to have been married on Oct. 8.

Death of a Prominent Citizen.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 30.—E. O. Courtney Jenkins, a prominent citizen and assistant postmaster under President Cleveland, died yesterday. He had been in feeble health for some months.

Correcting the Census.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The policemen began this morning to correct the alleged inaccurate count of the census enumerators of Statiscian Porter.

Threshing Boiler Explodes.

BUXTON, N. Dak., Sept. 30.—The boiler of a steam thresher exploded yesterday morning, killing Osmund Knutson and Charles Stein. Knut Ostriem was badly hurt.

What It Does.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
1. Purifies the blood.
2. Creates an appetite.
3. Strengthens the nerves.
4. Makes the weak strong.
5. Overcomes that tired feeling.
6. Cures scrofula, salt rheum, etc.
7. Invigorates the kidneys and liver.
8. Relieves headache, indigestion, dyspepsia.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

CORNER, WALKER & DAVIS,

—THE LEADING—

MERCHANT TAILORS,

Are showing the largest and most complete line of Fall and Winter SUITINGS and OVERCOATINGS ever shown in Marion. Call and see and be convinced.

This bit of testimony concerning a local nomination is from a democratic source, the Galion Inquirer:

T. H. B. Beale, a former resident of this city, has been nominated for probate judge by the republicans of Marion county. The nomination is a strong one.

UPPER SANDUSKY is amusing herself considerably by talking street railroad. If there is anybody that can have a heap of amusement out of a shaky air castle it is the average Wyandot. When that city has street railroads Delaware will have elevated railways.

THERE is a bit of Black Diamond news again and there may be something in it, but nothing less than cars running into Marion over that route will make our people have any abiding faith in the project. There has been too much fooling done in the past. The coming of the railroad would, however, be happy in its results.

California Fruit on Sale.

If you are not a politician and want to get a plum you have to go to California for it, vicariously, perhaps, but none the less certainly at this season. So when you see a lot of those big purple beauties lying in little nests of white tissue paper, looking as though they had just dropped from the tree all ready to be bitten, don't be deceived. They have all come from California; they have been handled in good part by Chinese cheap labor; they have taken a long journey overland, and have grown riper on the way, but they are tremendously good all the same. Just buy one and try it.

And this contribution to New York's comfort from California is a godsend. For the fruit crops in the east here have fallen off very considerably this year, some say as much as 66 per cent., or where there are usually 200,000 packages from New England, New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland there are now received, even on busy days, barely 6,000, and sometimes only 1,000 packages. But California, according to her fruit merchants here, has leaped into the breach like a constitutional Curtius, and promises to send here this year 500 car loads of fruit, each containing 20,000 pounds of the delicious products of rich soil and plentiful, dew mellowing sunlight.

All of this fruit comes here in refrigerating cars, and reaches the market here in admirable condition, all ready to be eaten.—New York Herald.

Severe on the Militia.

One of the regular officers who was at the Mt. Gretna encampment says the following in regard to that camp: "I cannot refrain from saying that it looks as if the state of Pennsylvania paid $165,000 for an inspection and two reviews. Beyond that nothing was attempted which could not have been better executed at the armories at home. The militiamen have the idea that if they get a few of the movements down fine which are spread out before them in Upton's tactics they are in condition to conquer the world and haven't anything more to learn. Why, they leave off just where real warfare begins. Such a thing as modern battle tactics is unknown to them. It is in the ability to rightly handle just such bodies of men as that division of 9,000 militiamen which encamped at Mt. Gretna that officers in the militia are lacking. That's the sort of work that will count in a war now, and that's the very thing that is never attempted."—Army and Navy Journal.

Not Discouraged Yet.

It is wonderful how much pertinacity and courage are displayed by the average settler in a new country. Up in Dickey and McIntosh counties, in North Dakota, the crops have failed for several seasons from various causes, and the hardy Russians and sturdy Germans who have been holding down claims in these localities have had pretty tough times. This year the hot winds have again cooked the crops, so that there is nothing left to harvest, and the poor foreigners have been forced to leave their farms and look for work in northern Wisconsin in order to save their families from starving during the coming winter. "But they are not discouraged," naively remarks a North Dakota paper, "and will cling to their claims, feeling confident that there is a good time yet in store for them."—Chicago Herald.

Do Not Suffer Any Longer.

Knowing that a cough can be checked in a day, and the first stages of consumption broken in a week, we hereby guarantee Dr. Acker's English Cough Remedy, and will refund the money to all who buy, take it as per directions, and do not find our statement correct. All Paris Astonished.

A few choice spirits in the Parisian fashionable world are wearing flannels, with straw hat and chamois leather shoes, in town this summer, just as they would at the seaside. The daring innovator who conceived this brilliant idea showed himself for the first time in this guise in the Jardin de Paris two weeks since, and was much complimented by his friends, who immediately made up their small minds to follow his lead. What fun for the street boys! The fin de siecle's shame the women with their love for fine clothes. Colored coats have quite taken the place of black for balls and parties with the younger members of the community. The latest fashion in coats is olive green, with crimson facings.

But not content with getting themselves up like gaudy parrots or performing monkeys, they must do the clown also. Their coats are of one color and lined with another, and so made that they can be turned inside out. In the middle of the evening, when the girls may possibly be tired (they think) of admiring their faces or their green get-up, they disappear, turn their coats, and reappear in vieux rose or "Eiffel" red—a transformation which earns them the applause of their own clan, and a fresh batch of admiration from their partners—poor dears—who are so simple that they do not notice how much their own toilets lose by not having the usual black background.—Tabie.

The Robber's Dog Was Tagged.

Chief of Police Speers received a letter from the chief of police at Kokomo, Ind., stating that a daring burglary had recently been committed in that town. The robbers who did the work, the letter stated, had a dog with them, and there was also a dog on the premises of the man whose house was burglarized. The two dogs got to fighting, and the robbers' dog was killed and its owners left its carcass in the yard where it fell.

Around the dead animal's neck was a collar; and fastened to it was a Kansas City dog tag that showed that it had been issued in 1889. Chief Speers turned the letter and the number of the dog tag over to the city clerk, who by looking over the records for 1889 found the name of the man to whom the tag had been issued. His residence was given as East Seventeenth street.

When the city clerk looked in the directory to see if the man still resided on East Seventeenth street he found opposite the name in brackets the words, "Removed to Kokomo, Ind." The authorities at Kokomo have been notified.—Kansas City Times.

A Snake in the Water Pipe.

An incident happened in The Tribune building which may be an effectual warning against drinking water from open faucets or from any vessel in the dark. Mrs. Finn, one of the women who clean the offices, was drawing water from a faucet at a sink on the seventh floor when she was startled by the sudden appearance of an extremely lively snake about two feet long. Mrs. Finn wasn't looking for snakes or thinking about them just then, and when this one emerged from the faucet she dropped her mop and pail and fled screaming through the corridors and down the stairs.

The janitor finally caught her and obtained a somewhat incoherent explanation. Seizing a stout stick, the janitor hurried up to the seventh floor, where he found the snake crawling in lively fashion over the tiled floor. The janitor was not frightened, and he soon crushed the reptile's head. It was a common water snake, not poisonous, but a decidedly unpleasant thing to come across in water used for drinking purposes.—New York Tribune.

Across Florida by Water.

Capt. A. Cook, of the Disston dredge boat which is cutting a canal from Hart lake to the Econlockhatchie, expects to complete the canal by Jan. 1, and then a rowboat may be taken by inland water from the mouth of the St. Johns to the mouth of the Caloosahatchee.—Cor. Savannah News.

An Old Time London Clipper.

One of the old time London clipper tea ships, the Mikado, is now lying in the Erie basin. She was run into in the most stupid and unaccountable manner by the big Philadelphia tug boat Rattler, and considerably damaged on the port side, and is being repaired at the Rattler's expense. The Mikado is a handsome type of a line of vessels that have passed away. She is what is known as a composite ship—that is, the frames are iron, with teak planking fastened with copper bolts.

These clippers were specially built for the tea trade, and many a cargo the Mikado has discharged in New York. The figurehead is the mikado, saber in hand. On each side of the bow is the Chinese dragon. Each side of the after cabin doors is decorated with carved figures of this emblem. The rig of the Mikado has been altered to a bark, as it requires less hands to man the vessel. The cabin is very handsome, the panels being painted with Chinese and Japanese scenes. The master, Capt. W. Bunn; Mrs. Bunn and their two boys live aboard.

Capt. Bunn has quite a museum of curiosities—petrified jellyfish, boats made from the breastbone of the albatross, collections of dried flowers and leaves, including some from Pitcairn Island. The Mikado has been for years in the Chilian trade, and was once caught in an attack made by the Peruvian fleet when the latter attempted to cut out the vessels of the Chilians. Capt. Bunn has made ten trips around Cape Horn in the Mikado.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Fifteen Cents for a Horse.

Julius Smith, of Troy Corners, on the Utica plank road, came to the city yesterday morning with a load of produce. He left his wagon in the eastern market and then put his horse in Victor Diedrich's barn. While disposing of his load in the market he was approached by three men, one of whom asked him if he wished to trade horses. He replied that he had no such desire, and was asked what the horse was worth. To get rid of the men he jokingly replied, "fifteen cents." Immediately one of the men put fifteen cents in his hand with the remark, "the horse is mine."

A moment afterward they disappeared. When Smith returned to the barn later on the horse was missing. He notified the police, and Patrolman Stuerwald was detailed to assist him in recovering the animal. The man who had given him the money was found near the barn, and locked up at the station. He gave his name as Robert B. Knowlton, aged 43, a farmer by occupation, and residing in Greenfield. He has, however, been stopping on Division street for some time. The horse was a gray mare, and valued at $170.—Detroit Free Press.

Uses of the Body Bath.

When breaking out on the face is tedious a daily soak all over in a warm soapy bath and fresh underwear that has been well sunned or dried at a fire through the day should be the last thing on going to bed. It is impossible to describe how saturated and how loaded with impurities the undershirt and drawers become from the perspiration of a not strictly healthy person in a single day.

The clothing next the skin, no matter what fabric, should be thin and soft enough to admit of washing easily and changing often. True, thick undershirts taking up the waste of the skin and worn next it a week are enough to account for a good many of the complaints about rough faces.—Shirley Dare.

Making Silk from Wild Hemp.

Nayemura Sakusaisro, a druggist, of Hikone, in Omi, Japan, after many years of experiment and patient research, has succeeded in converting wild hemp into a substance possessing all the essential qualities of silk. Nothing is said about the process, but it is asserted that a trial of the thread has been made at the silk weaving establishment in Kioto and other factories with excellent results in every case. The plant in question grows wild on moors and hillsides. Its fiber is strong and glossy, in no ways inferior to silk when properly prepared.—Exchange.

NOT SURE OF ANYTHING.

Adversity Had Taught Him Not to Be Too Certain.

"Fine day."

This was the remark addressed by the man who was waiting for a street car to the lank individual leaning against a lamp post.

"Um—so-so," replied the lank party, after taking a leisurely survey of the sky.

"If the wind keeps blowing in this direction for twenty-four hours longer there will be rain," ventured the first speaker.

"Um—I'm not so sure about that," said the other cautiously.

"The wind, at least, is dead south now."

"I'm—perhaps."

"It certainly isn't north."

The lank individual pursed up his lips as if about to whistle, looked at the sky again, shook his head slowly and said:

"I'm not so blamed certain it isn't."

"At any rate, sir, it isn't raining now, is it? Hey?"

Another careful examination of the firmament and the cautious remark:

"It may be raining and it may not. You can't always tell about these things."

"Great Jehoshaphat! Can't you see there isn't a cloud in the sky?"

"Um—likely enough. Likely enough. It may appear that way to some folks. But it's best not to be too sure."

"May appear that way? Why, good gracious, man! Haven't you got any eyes?"

"Maybe I have and maybe I haven't," retorted the attenuated individual, passing his hand over his face as if to find out. "All I know is that there's nothing certain in this world. You think there is a fair ground out at the end of this street, perhaps?"

"I certainly do."

"Just so. I was certain of it yesterday myself. I was certain there was a man out there with two or three walnut shells he was moving about on the head of a barrel. I was certain I could tell which shell the little black ball was under. I was just as certain of it as you are that it isn't raining. It cost me every darned cent I had to find out that I didn't know anything about it. I am not going to be sure of anything again as long as I live."

He took a plug of tobacco from his pocket, looked at it as if he were not sure whether it was tobacco or not, put it back into his pocket, sighed a long, heavy, dismal sigh and looked straight through the other man into the far off depths of space.—Chicago Tribune.

HOOD'S
COMPOUND EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA
TRADE MARK

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.

At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. It strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar curative powers. No other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. It is a Peculiar Medicine, and is worthy your confidence.

Peculiar To Itself

LIGHT AND AIRY.

Not a Conquest.

With respectful admiration
That suggests fascination
The man across the horse car sat and stared at me.
Till a feeling of elation,
And a sort of palpitation
Of the heart resulted from his fluttering persistency.

He kept his eyes bent on me,
And his admiration won me,
Till he leaned across and spoke, with an apologetic cough.
Then I flushed in every feature,
For he said (the horrid creature!)
"Beg your pardon, ma'am, for speaking, but your breastpin's dropping off."
—Somerville Journal.

Wasted Pity.

A traveler in a backwoods community, attracted by a noise in a cabin not far from the roadside, stopped, and, addressing a boy that sat on a fence, said:

"You live about here, I suppose?"

"Yep, jest about."

"Well, can you tell me what makes that peculiar noise up yonder in that cabin?"

"Yep; it's pap an' mam."

"What are they doing—beating a carpet?"

"Nop; beatin' one nuther."

"You don't say so!"

"Who said I didn't?"

"I mean, is it possible?"

"That's what it is."

"What are they beating each other for?"

"'Cause they're fightin'."

"Is it possible that you sit here so complacently and see your father beat your mother?"

"I don't see him beatin' her."

"Yes, but you know that he is."

"I know he's tryin' to. If you're here to pity mam, mister, you'd better ride on. Mam's the boss up thar, I'll tell you that. Hol' on, did you hear that thump? Wall, that wuz dad a-comin' down on the puncheon flo'. Mam hists him, but she lets him drap himse'f. Reckon you'd better go on, or stay and pity pap awhile."—Chicago Herald.

September.

The days have shorter grown, the nights are chill,
The summer girl has donned a thicker gown,
The katydid is chirping sharply shrill,
The green grassed hills are blurred and blent with brown.

The poet pipes a pessimistic lay,
His muse is moved to melancholy moans;
The honest farmer also feels that way:
He calls it "ager workin' in his bones."

Some other beau she's got, I'm sure;
But then—I've got another girl.

Rheumatism,

BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous acid is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony:—

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease."—Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."—Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

BROKEN OUT!

How often do we see this on the faces of children and, alas, of people who otherwise are healthy? What causes it? Bad Blood. The thought is terrible; the trouble is worse. No ordinary help can remove it. It requires something unusual. Do not take cheap sarsaparillas or blood purifiers. You must have something that has proven its power in both Europe and America. General Wheatcroft Nelson, of London, says: "My experience in the English army, as well as in America, convinces me that nothing so thoroughly purifies the blood, or adds to the health, vigor and life, as Dr. Acker's English Blood Elixir."

This grand Elixir is sold by druggists in all parts of America. It is a good, pure, honest medicine. Try it to-day.

Trash

—Miss Laura Crabb, of New Holland, O., is the guest of Mrs. J. E. Rhoads.

—Miss Dora Spurgeon has returned to Marion, after a five months stay at Dayton.

—The worst cases of scrofula, salt rheum and other diseases of the blood, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

—Dr. Hensley departs today to attend annual conference at Westerville, Ohio. He will return next Monday.

—The Huber shops are shut down this week for the purpose of making the annual invoice. They will open again next Monday.

—The ladies of the M. E. church will serve meals in the dining hall at the Fair ground during the Fair. Dinner 35¢, supper and breakfast 25¢.

—Rev. and Mrs. D. Winters, of Prospect, who have just returned from an extensive wedding tour, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Raffensperger Monday evening.

—Among the most active in the Fair grounds this morning were the ladies of the M. E. church, who are conducting the dining hall. The ladies are working hard and will doubtless make a neat sum for their church.

—P. W. Holverstott returned Monday from a week's visit in the southern part of the state. While away Mr. Holverstott met with a misfortune by having a valuable horse seriously injured at his farm, by running against a barb-wire fence.

—Sheriff Kelly and Geo. B. Scofield were at Upper Sandusky Monday, the former to confer with the sheriff of the Wyandots and the latter to join the Congressional committee in a meeting. Returning home the sheriff and Ex-Governor Foster swapped stories on Indian hunting.

—John Atkinson, of the Erie engineer corps, is in the city making a a survey of the railroad yards for the purpose of making a complete map thereof. Mr Atkinson is a very pleasant gentleman and an able engineer. The specific object of the survey and maps is not given out.

—Mrs. J. F. Walker, of Galion, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. H. Kulencamp, on north West street.

—I. M. Bloomer, of Toledo, was in the city today, looking up the congressional situation in this district in the interest of the News, with which he is connected editorially.

—Don't forget the ladies of the M. E. church will give you a deliciously cooked meal at the fair grounds. Hot coffee with home-made pumpkin pie for dessert. Give them a call.

—Citizens along the streets leading to the Fair grounds have sufficient reason to rejoice in the possession of waterworks. Lawn hose will be in frequent use in that part of town this week.

—Her. Burke and Randall will give their specialties at Music Hall Wednesday evening between acts. The boys have made a reputation away from home, and no doubt Marion people will be pleased to see them.

—Alf Tallman, the well-known horseman, is over from Kenton and has a fast horse at the Fair grounds. Maxey B., the horse he drove here in the exciting pacing race with Sankey, was sold during the summer.

—The ladies of the M. E. church are prepared to serve hot meals to all hungry people who may attend the fair. At the lunch counter will be found delicious baked beans, doughnuts, cold chicken, and all the appetizing viands of the season.

—A flock of quail became scattered about the city this forenoon, one of which flew into a tree at the court house. It was quite a novelty to have one of the pretty birds at such a public place, and its song, so familiar to the sportsman, attracted considerable attention.

—C. C. Pettit has the plans already drawn for a new block to be erected on the corner of High and east Center streets next spring, where Mr. Pettit's residence now stands. The upper floors of the new block will be fitted in flats, much finer than any yet arranged in Marion.

—Zepha Drake, driver of the Normal hack, was kicked by a horse this morning and received a severe wound. He was hitching up his team near the stable, when he received a violent kick in the hip and was knocked senseless. It is thought he will not suffer any serious results from the wound but will be laid up for a while.

—In his report to the state board of health for the month of September, Health Officer Redd has but six deaths to announce. These were attributable to the following causes: Consumption 1, cholera infantum 2, heart trouble 1, typhoid fever 1, and accident 1. This is an unusually light death rate, and indicates a healthy period.

—It is understood that Morral Bros have decided to locate their cultivator works at Morral, the $10,000 stock having been easily raised at that village. Morral Bros. were anxious to come to Marion, having appreciated the advantages of this city, and it is not a credit that a recognized good thing was allowed to escape Marion so easily.

—Over at Caledonia today Jonathan Lyons had a runaway accident that might have resulted fatally. While driving through the streets at that place his horse became frightened and threw him out of the buggy with great force against a tree. He was stunned, injured about the face, and also received a broken wrist. The vehicle was completely demolished.

Get a Free Ticket.

J. E. Rhoads, the shoe dealer, wants all his patrons to go to the Fair free, and will give every purchaser to the extent of three dollars a free ticket. The offer is open to all. The goods sell no higher but at the regular price, the lowest in Marion. Call and get your footwear and get your admission to the great county show free.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Barnhart and family extend thanks to their loved friends of Marion and vicinity for their kindness and sympathy during the illness of their beloved husband and father, H. M. Barnhart.

THE OPENING DAY

Preliminary Arrangements Being Completed for the Fair.

The preparations that have been going on at the fair grounds today in the way of arranging displays augur an unusually interesting exhibition, bidding fair, as has been heretofore stated, of outdoing anything of the kind in the history of the county. This is the general impression of those on the grounds and in a position to know.

Every department is filling up rapidly, exceeding the displays of former years, unless it is possibly the fruit and vegetable departments. As to stock, there is no end to the handsome varieties in all departments. Fine cattle, horses and sheep are in abundance. In the latter line the display will be considerably larger, the new sheep barns rapidly filling up. As an evidence of the vast number of horses present, it was necessary to build new stalls, and a force of carpenters was put to work at 4 o'clock this morning, and six new 18-feet additions are rapidly going up, adding thirty or forty new stalls.

The number of fast horses is greater than ever before, and there are some good ones, too, making the speed ring a great attraction. Secretary Ault was busy all morning making entries.

In fact the general preparations exceed anything of the kind in the past. Nothing, of course, was in shape this morning up to noon, and the great machinery display was only beginning to get in order.

CANDIDATE FOSTER.

The Ex-Governor Drops into Town to See the Republican Leaders.

Ex-governor Foster, the republican candidate for congress, dropped into Marion Monday evening with his private secretary, J. L. Lott, of Tiffin, and registered at the Marion. His coming had been previously announced and he was called upon by a number of prominent republicans yet that evening.

The forenoon was also spent here, receiving callers and conferring with the prominent republicans of the city. The governor was in a cheerful and gracious mood, and the conferences here had an air of confidence and good promises about them that made the knowing ones feel satisfied.

No information is given out as to the plans of campaign, but there is certain to be a vigorous one, and it is but a short time until real things may be seen, rather than speculations and promises.

Mr. Durfee as an Accountant.

Twenty-seven years ago this week, 1863, Edward Durfee moved from Columbus, Ohio, to Marion, taking the position as teller in what is now the Farmers Bank of this city. The place was vacated by his brother, Geo. B. Durfee, who, with Justin Bunker, their brother-in-law, enlisted in the 96th O. V. I. and went away to the war. This banking house was then transacting business under the name of the Bank of Marion, with J. J. Hane as cashier. Then for awhile it became a National bank, but for the last ten years, has been known as the Farmers Bank. For the past two years, Mr. Durfee has held the position of cashier.

Failing health compelled him to seek a rest and change, and he is now spending a few weeks in Kansas and Colorado. Mr. Durfee's worth and accuracy as an accountant is well established in this community, and all who have been associated with him in business bear testimony to his honesty and unblemished integrity.

Huber Exhibits.

The Huber threshing outfits are being exhibited at a half dozen fairs this week. At Ottawa, Ohio, August Shroeder is in charge of the outfit while D. S. Jones entertains the prospective buyers. At Carrolton, C. M. McBride is keeping track of the sales while S. Leeka looks after the exhibit of the outfit.

H. A. Davis, J. H. F. Browning and E. D. Barlow are showing a complete rig at Vincennes, Ind., while H. J. Clemens and R. S. Smith are knocking out other exhibitors at LaPorte, Ind.

At Birmingham, Mich., the exhibit is in charge of S. G. Stewart and the local agents, Caswell Bros., and at Peoria, Ill., Rouse Hazard & Co. are making a large show.

Of course the company's machinery will be exhibited at the Marion fair this week.

Queer Fact About the Lady Bug

It is a curious fact that the Australian lady bug, which was brought to this state to make war upon the cotton cushion scale, has become extinct in its native land, and that Australia is to be supplied with a new stock of the useful [illegible] by our state board of horticulture. The lady bug known as the Vedalia has been worth millions of dollars to California in preserving the orchards from threatened destruction.—Marysville (Cal.) Appeal.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the Marion Ministerial Association the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Our highly esteemed co-laborer, Rev. Wm Lucas, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church of this city, has for the past two years been a member of this organization, and

WHEREAS, In the providence of God he has been called to another field of labor, thereby severing his connection with this body, therefore be it

RESOLVED, 1st, That we very much regret the loss of so worthy a member, and feel that the city has lost an able and honored christian minister and an able exponent of the gospel of Christ.

RESOLVED, 2d, That while we give to our brother the parting hand we also give to him the assurance that he shall carry with him our best wishes and most earnest prayers for his success in his new field.

RESOLVED, 3d, That we can most heartily commend him to the people of St. Joseph and his associate ministers of all churches as an earnest, liberal minded, christian minister, worthy of their confidence and esteem; and now may the peace of God keep his heart and mind now and ever more, amen and amen.

An Unusual Phenomenon.

An unusual phenomenon was witnessed at Neville island Thursday. During the heavy thunder storm a shock of green corn in a lot a few feet from Squire Shanks' residence was struck by lightning, and taking fire, instantly burned until it was entirely consumed, the flames rising several feet above the top of the corn. The corn was not only wet by the shower, but was entirely green, having been cut but a few hours.

People who witnessed the sight were reminded of the story of Elijah's competitive test of the products of Baal, the fire coming down from the sky and consuming a pile fully as wet as was the sacrificial altar. Several people in the vicinity were somewhat stunned, but not seriously injured.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Mechanical Use of His Teeth.

One of the attractions at the Kazan industrial exhibition is the curious workmanship of a peasant from Little Russia named Nitikin, who works exclusively with his teeth, and makes little carriages and other small articles in capital shape. The young man, aged 25, was born without arms or legs, but he can move very rapidly to right and left, and employs his jaws as a saw and a graving tool.—Journal of Rouen.

M. de Brazza, the French African explorer, has achieved great success among the negroes of the Gaboon region by organizing among them fairs of the European, and especially the Gallic, kind. During the fete of the Fourteenth of July The London Telegraph's Paris correspondent says the blackamoors and their dusky wives or sweethearts danced to the music of a hurdy-gurdy and patronized eagerly the merry-go-rounds. Shooting galleries were also erected, the negroes using their spears instead of rifles.

AN EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE.

Howard Wall's Comedy Company Make an Auspicious Opening.

So far as could be judged from last night's performance—and there was excellent opportunity—no better repertoire company has ever showed at Music Hall than Howard Wall's which opened the week's engagement with "A Vagabond's Wife." The hall was crowded and with an the large audience we doubt if there has been anything but praise for the performance given.

Robert Wayne and Miss Carrie Wayne, who have been here before, assumed leading characters in "A Vagabond's Wife," and they may be mentioned together as artists of ability. Ralph Densmore as [illegible] and Howard Wall as Uncle [illegible], also did their characters with special ability. Miss Carrie [illegible] a [illegible] little thing and [illegible] together with [illegible] [illegible] the audience last night with her [illegible] getting several encores. But individual mention of the company is not necessary; they are all so good, and it does not devolve upon one or two [illegible] the case to redeem the company.

A week of first-class performances may be expected from the auspicious opening made last night and a good business is predicted. Tonight the company will produce the comedy-drama, "Flirtation," or "A Wife's Peril."

White Caps.

Marion must certainly be a model town, as the never-welcome white caps never had an occasion to use their forcible arguments against the morals of any of its inhabitants. But that has nothing to do with black caps. They have really taken us by storm, as a glance along the street any afternoon will show the heads of our pretty girls and fair ladies almost without exception adorned with them. Kleinmaier Bros., the strictly one price outfitters, have this morning opened a splendid variety of ladies' and misses' black caps, ranging from 50c up, which they are selling rapidly. [illegible]
